GRADUATION MESSAGE

Congratulations, dear graduates and completers of SY 2020-2021!

You make us all look at the future with anticipation and pride. You have once again proven that true champions can thrive in the midst of the challenging realities of life. Your sheer grit and resilience have brought you this far in your lifelong pursuit for quality education.

Your achievements call for a celebration. You have risen above the worst of times and have responded to the overwhelming demands of the new normal with elan. Your education must not only be reflected in your report cards, but must be manifested in how you masterfully deal with life – an embodiment of courage, compassion, character, and competence.

As you relish this moment, remember to celebrate your success with our indefatigable advocates and champions of quality education – teachers, parents, school administrators, education leaders, stakeholders, and friends among others. Your success seals our triumph over trials. It propels our collective aspiration for a brighter future despite the limitations caused by the Covid-19 pandemic.

This is just the beginning of a beautiful journey ahead. We firmly believe in your potential for success because in DepEd Region VI, “every child is a champion.” As you cross this time of immense challenges and great opportunities, keep your passion for greatness alive. May your achievements inspire everyone to move forward with a renewed sense of hope, meaning, and purpose.

Together, we shall rise as one. Ipadayon ta ang pagpalanga-anay!

Once again, congratulations and mabuhay!
