DR. RAMIR B. UYTICO, CESO III
Director, Department of Education
RO VI, Western Visayas

Dear Dr. Uytico,

Good day! I hope this email finds you well.

Let me introduce to you "Educators Without Borders" (EWB) which is a pro-bono advocacy initiated by Pathways Education Consultancy. EWB was conceived when the whole world, particularly its various educational systems, struggled to "fly the plane while building it" in the midst of the pandemic. Our awakening to the reality that education continues in a technology-driven international community, in spite of the challenges, was the very reason why we were inspired to establish this advocacy. If there is the charitable "Doctors without Borders", there is enough reason that EWB can help address, in our most humble ways, the foundational and socio-emotional learning lags of our teenage learners during humanity's uncharted territory.

Vision

Youth leaders who value their personal worth and their potential to touch lives and make a difference.

Mission

Educators Without Borders (EWB), as a learning community, commits to provide opportunities for the youth to become purpose-driven leaders and catalysts for positive change.

We are passionate to inspire and develop our global community of youth to a life dedicated to leadership, service, and innovation.

In view thereof, I would like to propose the conduct of a series of learning circles in your area of responsibility to be participated in by two hundred and ten (210) Supreme Student Government Advisers on the following dates and time:

ON SERVANT LEADERSHIP

Our sessions will involve the cyclical teaching-learning approach – passing through the same areas of study repeatedly over time. Learning spirals continually deeper with every cycle one is a part of in any given engagement.

Furthermore, I would like to request a point person from your end with whom I will closely coordinate with in line with registration, attendance, issuance of certificates and the Zoom link.

In anticipation for a favorable response on this matter, please accept my heartfelt appreciation.

Sincerely,

nerissa linell joie t. calub
