REV. FR. FREDERICK C. COMENDADOR, O.S.A.
 President
 University of San Agustin

Dear Fr. Comendador:

Augustinian Greetings!

In representation of all BS Foreign Service Students in the University of San Agustin, stands the Junior Diplomats Corps. Indeed, the USA-JDC has kept true to its purpose of fostering and grooming student leaders in the international stage, while introducing them to the advent of globalism through the conduction of co-curricular activities. One of which is the San Agustin Model United Nations (SAMUN).

It stands of paramount importance in the meaningful and diplomatic resolution of diversified global issues. Such a purpose is achieved through the careful simulation of both etiquette and protocols, and the conduct of affairs as would be done in the United Nations. This has become a platform where students from different academic programs, universities, and organizations, come together to utilize their knowledge in diplomacy, international law and relations, globalization, sustainability, cultural development and many more.

In its 4th year, the San Agustin Model United Nations puts its attention towards the purposive transition of globalization to international cooperation in order to achieve the desired result which is global justice. As such, the theme, "Integrating International Collaboration for a Secure and Equitable Global Community" stands as a stark reminder of unity and justice as the true foundations of the United Nations, even the world entire.

In this regard, the 4th San Agustin Model United Nations Secretariat humbly requests your esteemed office to endorse and support our activity. It shall be held on December 2 to 4, 2022, in the University of San Agustin-Iloilo. Rest assured that this platform has done its share of being one of the prime movers of hope for peace, cooperation, and advancement in the international stage. May we reap the success of this event.

The Organizing Committee of the 4th San Agustin Model United Nations would like to extend in advance its most heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for your support in our endeavors.

Respectfully yours,

MARY DIVINE S. DE VILLALUNA
