Dear Dr. Aposin:

Greetings!

In February we shall be celebrating National Arts Month as mandated in Presidential Proclamation 683. In line with the celebration, we are lucky to be given the opportunity to learn more about Children's Literature through "Brown Eyes – An Online Beginners' Workshop for Poetry written for Children" to be conducted by one of the region's premier and most decorated writer, Palanca Hall of Famer, Peter Solis Nery.

This workshop is the first in a series of workshops planned by Mr. Nery and his team and it is such a privilege for us to be given first dibs information on this event. Below are the corresponding links to details regarding the workshop as well as the processes on how to register and participate. The workshop charges a very reasonable introductory fee of ₱ 500.00 per person. I would like to personally endorse this activity to you for the participation of our students and teachers especially those engaged in literature as this will help them in further improving and enriching their learning and teaching experiences and strategies.
