Division Advisory No. 056, S. 2023
April 27, 2023

In compliance with DepEd Order No. 21, S. 2015 titled “Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Coordination and Information Protocol” as reiterated by DepEd Order No.33, S. 2021 titled “School-Based Disaster Preparedness and Response Measures for Tropical Cyclones, Flooding, and Other Weather-Related Disturbances and Calamities”

Based on the above-captioned DepEd Memoranda, it is incumbent upon schools to create, enhance and maintain mechanisms for anticipating, preparing for, and responding to the impacts of hazards. It is recognized that the value of the School-based Management in DRRM is vital in undertaking disaster preparedness measures. As such, designation of the School Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Coordinator is essential.

Anent this, all schools are required to designate its respective School Disaster Risk Reduction and Management (SDRRM) Coordinator for School Year 2022-2023, 2023-2024 and 2024-2025. In designating SDRRM Coordinator, please take note of the provisions of DO 33, S. 2021, more particularly Section V, paragraph #12-15 for reference and proper guidance. It is also advised that schools must reorganize its respective School Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Team (SDRRM).

Deadline for the submission per district of the Designation Letter and the SDRRMT will be on May 10, 2023 at the division office.
