The Office of the Schools Division Superintendent
Department of Education

Dear Sir/ Madam:

A Grace-filled New Year!

Since 1994, the Center for Human Research and Development Foundation Inc. as a non-stock and non-profit organization collaborated to various community stakeholders in providing high quality and relevant learning and development programs. As the new year begins, we have designed year-long professional development programs for non-teaching personnel. We are well aware on the various steps carried out by the Department of Education to improve the education over the years. We are one in lauding and celebrating all these unwavering efforts and achievements.

As an accredited CPD provider for licensed professional teachers and authorized NEAP Learning Service Provider continuously develops professional development programs that can further hone and enhance the competencies of our teachers using the Philippine Professional Standards for Teachers (PPST) as a framework.

We are pleased to invite you to invite in this professional development program entitled Instructional Supervision & Educational Management with NEAP Recognized Program on Learner-Centered Education is an in-person training program. Registration fee will be collected to cover all the expenses.

To help teachers from DepEd in their career progression, this training program will also include a NEAP recognized program entitled Seminar Workshop on Learner-Centered Education as Key to Meaningful Teaching & Learning (PD-2021-0025-0727). Once successfully completed, this will professional points will credited in their respective NEAP Professional Development Information System or PDIS useful in the promotion and reclassification process.

This program is designed to provide capacity building for Teacher I-III and Master Teachers I-III in the area of instructional planning, instructional supervision and educational management. As their duties and responsibilities include mentoring and guiding co-teachers in content delivery and teaching skills difficulties, conduct demonstration teaching to share effective teaching techniques or strategies, initiate improvement in instructional program, introduce innovative teaching approaches and strategies, perform regular class monitoring using

About Center for Human Research & Development Foundation Inc.

The Center for Human Research and Development Foundation, Inc. (CHRDF) started as a training center commissioned by the Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA) in cooperation with the Philippine Association of Private Technical Institute (PAPTI) and the Don Bosco Center for Research and Training in 1994 to undertake short-term training programs for the enhancement of vocational, industrial, and technical skills of workers in government as well as private institutions all over the country.

In 1995, CHRDF ventured into the training of technical school administrators in the area of financial management in the Visayas and Mindanao. In 1997, CHRDF expanded its audience to include teachers and college instructors teaching Filipino when it conducted a seminar-workshop on "Pagtuturo ng Filipino sa Bagong Kalakaran" in cooperation with U.P. College (Baguio City) and in cooperation with RELC-DECS Region XI (Davao City). In 1998, CHRDF again expanded its audience to include teachers and college instructors teaching English when it conducted a seminar-workshop on ESP as an Alternative Approach to English Language Teaching for Globalization in cooperation with: Cebu Institute of Technology in Cebu City; the Association of Booksellers for the Academe and the Professions (ABAP) and with Davao Librarians Association (Davao City). Also in 1998, it conducted seminar-workshops for textbook and journal article writers working in the academe, corporate and industrial firms (Davao City).

Today, CHRDF is deeply committed to provide up-to-date qualified Continuing Professional Development (CPD) conferences and training programs compliant with the ASEAN Mutual Recognition Arrangement and Philippine Quality Framework (PQF) standards. We are one with the Philippine Government in accelerating human capital through bridging the gap with the challenges of ASEAN integration and Global citizenship. With our professional partners in various disciplines, we are broadening our horizons by reaching out every Filipino educator in all levels both in public and private schools, school administrators, deans, librarians, as well as the non-educators in general.

Vision

To be a training institution that is committed to imparting high-level knowledge to promote the professional and self-development of our participants for the benefit of themselves, their institution and the nation.

Mission

As an active part of nation building, the Center for Human Research and Development Foundation Inc. (CHRDF) exists to uplift the technical skills, intellectual capacity, moral and economic well-being particularly of the working class of the Philippine society.

As a non-stock, non-profit corporation, CHRDF is committed to upgrading the quality of job performance of teachers, instructors, professionals and para-professionals, vocational and technical instructors in public and private educational and business institutions by offering a full-range of affordable and high-quality training programs backed by research, publications and information.

Core Values

Professional Excellence, Resilience, Lifelong Learning and Positive Transforming leadership.
