Dear Sir/Madam,

Warm greetings from CDRC!

The Citizens' Disaster Response Center Foundation Inc. (CDRC) is a non-stock non-government organization duly registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

As part of its advocacy to create and raise awareness on disaster preparedness, we are thrilled to announce that the CDRC, will be holding its annual ABKD Poster Making Contest. The "Apoy, Bagyo, Kalamidad: Dibuhong Pambata (ABKD) 2023" poster making contest has been organized by the Citizens' Disaster Response Center since 1996, which aims to recognize the capacity of children and seeks to stimulate awareness about the importance of disaster preparedness. ABKD is joined by over 500 children across the country.

ABKD was also supported on various occasions by different organizations like the United Nations' Children Fund (UNICEF), Foundation for the Philippine Environment (FPE) and Diakonie Katastrophenhilfe (DKH), among others.

In this regard, we once again request your good office to assist us in dissemination promotional material for such activity under your command. Attached herewith is the poster announcement for your reference.

We humbly extend our deepest gratitude for the assistance that your good office has been extending in view of this undertaking.

Sincerely,

CDRC opens 2023 poster-making contest

The Citizens' Disaster Response Center Foundation, Inc. (CDRC) is inviting Filipino youth aged seven to 12 to submit entries to its 2023 annual poster-making contest.

Titled Apoy, Bagyo, Kalamidad: Dibuhong Pambata (#ABKD), this is CDRC's 28th annual contest held to recognize children's capacity and advocacy of disaster and risk management in households, schools, and communities.

ABKD is divided into two categories: Category A is open to children ages 7 to 9, where they are expected to express their ideas on disaster preparedness on any of the following subjects: typhoons or floods, volcanic eruption or lahar, earthquake, fire, landslide or trash slide, and damage to the environment brought about by large-scale mining, illegal logging and other controversial development projects.

Category B is open to children aged 10 to 12. Artworks under this category should focus on any of the following subjects: drought, red tide or fish kill, infestation, outbreak of diseases or epidemic, armed conflict, and climate change.

Participants should choose only ONE theme per artwork in their category. All artworks should be drawn on a  $\frac{1}{4}$  illustration board, on a landscape orientation, and must indicate category and disaster type. Participants should give their entries a title and a caption.

Entries should be submitted with the contestant's name, age, address, telephone number, school's name, grade level, and other important information. Incomplete details and not following the contest mechanics will result in automatic disqualification of entries.

Entries must be submitted to CDRC no later than September 30, 2023 (Saturday). For other information, please check ABKD posters and flyers posted in our official Facebook Page, or call CDRC at (02) 8929-9820 / 22.

In recognition of children's capacity to take active part in the advocacy of disaster-related issues, the Citizens' Disaster Response Center Foundation Inc., (CDRC) is staging its 28th annual poster-making contest "APOY, BAGYO, KALAMIDAD: DIBUHONG PAMBATA" or ABKD 2023. Since 1996, ABKD has served as a venue for children to show their creativity and artistic talents, as well as express their views and concerns on disaster-related issues.
