Dear Dr. Bermejo,

The Philippine Red Cross, through its Red Cross Youth (RCY), continues to be at the forefront of developing young leaders who are committed to volunteerism and humanitarian service. As an integral part of the Red Cross Movement, RCY empowers youth through training, leadership opportunities, and community involvement—ensuring they grow not just in knowledge and skills, but in heart and purpose.

In line with this mission, the RCY–Capiz Chapter is proud to organize the 30th Red Cross Youth Capiz Summer Camp, to be held on May 25–29, 2025, at Congressman Ramon A. Arnaldo High School, Brgy. Banica, Roxas City, with the theme:

"Heart for Humanity, Passion for Service, and Unity in Purpose."

This event marks a significant milestone in our journey—celebrating three decades of inspiring, training, and mobilizing the youth of Capiz to uphold the principles of the Red Cross. Over the years, this summer camp has become a cornerstone of our youth development initiatives, where young volunteers gather to deepen their humanitarian values, enhance their leadership capacities, and build bonds that strengthen our shared mission.

Participants will engage in a five-day program filled with workshops, simulations, team-building activities, and discussions centered on disaster preparedness, leadership, service, and volunteerism. This is not just a camp—it is a transformative experience that molds the youth into effective agents of change in their communities.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION GUIDE

The Philippine Red Cross recognizes the vital role of young people in championing humanitarianism and volunteerism. Among its greatest assets is the Red Cross Youth (RCY)—a dynamic force of passionate individuals dedicated to service, leadership, and community action. As the future of humanitarian work, the RCY serves as the backbone of many life-saving initiatives, embodying the core principles of the Red Cross Movement.

For decades, the Philippine Red Cross-Capiz Chapter has steadfastly empowered the youth through meaningful opportunities that transform their energy, idealism, and compassion into impactful humanitarian efforts. From disaster preparedness and first aid training to community outreach programs and leadership development, RCY Capiz has been instrumental in shaping young minds to become proactive agents of change in their communities.

The Red Cross Youth Capiz Summer Camp is an annual gathering where young volunteers immerse themselves in humanitarian action, leadership training, and camaraderie. More than just a camp, it is a platform for learning, personal growth, and fostering a strong sense of duty toward society. It is where young volunteers come together to share experiences, enhance their skills, and build lasting friendships rooted in a common goal—to serve humanity selflessly.

RCY Capiz proudly celebrates its 30th year—a milestone reflecting its members. This celebration is not only a tribute to the past but also a renewed call to action for the future—to continue the mission with heart, passion, and unity at its core.

This year's theme, "Heart for Humanity, Passion for Service, and Unity in Purpose" encapsulates the essence of the Red Cross Youth spirit. It highlights the values that have shaped generations of RCY members—a heart that beats for others, an unyielding passion for service, and a united purpose in creating positive change. These principles have been the foundation of RCY's mission, ensuring that young volunteers are not only skilled and knowledgeable but also compassionate and dedicated to making a difference.

Through engaging lectures, hands-on workshops, leadership training, and team-building activities, participants will be equipped to navigate the evolving landscape of volunteerism with compassion, dedication, and solidarity. They will learn the importance of teamwork, adaptability, and resilience—qualities that are essential in addressing the humanitarian challenges of today and the future.

As we mark this historic milestone, we reaffirm our commitment to strengthening the Red Cross Youth movement and ensuring that its legacy continues to thrive for generations to come. This is us—stronger together, ready to serve, and committed to humanity.

Objectives

This will provide our participants the opportunity to:

- Deepen the understanding of Humanity, Impartiality, Neutrality, Independence, Voluntary Service, Unity, and Universality, ensuring that every RCY member embodies these principles in their service.
- Empower youth with practical leadership skills, crisis response abilities, and a strong sense of responsibility to prepare them for future humanitarian challenges.
- Train participants in disaster response and emergency preparedness to equip them with the skills necessary to save lives and protect communities.
- Foster strong relationships and teamwork, creating a network of passionate youth volunteers who work together for a common cause.
- Honor the legacy of RCY Capiz, recognizing its impact over the past three decades while motivating the next generation to continue its mission of compassion, resilience, and humanitarian service.
