DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 080, s. 2020

CAPIZ DIVISIONSCHOOLS READINESS DRY-RUN

To: Public Schools District Supervisors
Heads of Public Secondary and Integrated Schools

1. One of the challenges faced by the DepEd in this pandemic is ensuring the readiness of the whole education system. Aside from the BE- LCP Guidelines, most schools have been preparing early and diligently which can serve as examples on being responsive to the new normal. In line with this the Schools Division of Capiz will have a Schools Readiness Dry –Run on August 10-14, 2020 in some schools in all Districts.
2. The objective of this activity is to demonstrate the capacity and the capability of the schools in implementing the BE-LCP, with particular emphasis on the implementation of the various Learning Delivery Modalities in the different types of schools.
3. All Districts will have one sample school for every typology. Below is the listing of the different typologies.

Urban School – Large – Elementary and Secondary
Urban school – Medium – Elementary and Secondary
Rural School - Mountain – Elementary and Secondary
Rural School – Island – Elementary and Secondary
Rural School – Incomplete
IP School
Multi-grade School
SPED School
School with CLC

4. There will be an orientation with the EPS, PSDS on Monday July 27, 2020 at 1:00 o clock PM.
5. The Curriculum Implementation Division Will spearhead the activity.
6. Expenses incurred in the conduct of this activity shall be charged against local funds subject to the usual accounting rules and procedures.
7. Immediate dissemination of this memorandum is desired.
