Dear Professor Goldstein:

I have received your letter of December 15, 1963, regarding the possibility of a visit to the University of Chicago in the summer of 1964. I am pleased to hear that you are interested in the work being done in the Department of Chemistry, and I would like to have you visit with us.

The Department of Chemistry is currently engaged in a number of projects which may be of interest to you. We are particularly interested in the study of the structure and properties of polymers, and in the development of new materials. We would like to have you visit with us and discuss these projects with us.

I am sure that you will find our work very interesting, and I would like to have you visit with us in the summer of 1964. I am sure that you will find our work very interesting, and I would like to have you visit with us in the summer of 1964.
