1. This Office through the Curriculum Implementation Division will conduct a Three-Day Face-to-Face Humanities and Social Sciences (HUMSS) Pedagogical Summit on Least Learned Competencies on March 17-19, 2023. This is a NEAP-Recognized Professional Development Program Course with Program/Course Recognition No. R6-PD-2022-0007-1122. Participants are expected to meet all the required outputs before a Certificate of Participation/Recognition will be released. The venue will be announced later.
2. This activity aims to capacitate the participants to:
 - a. understand the content and performance standards stipulated in the eight specialized subjects in HUMSS;
 - b. familiarize the process and format in designing lesson exemplars;
 - c. develop meaningful and relevant lesson exemplars for the least learned skills in Humanities and Social Sciences' Specialized subjects.
 - d. conduct a dialogue on how to address the least mastered competencies; and
 - e. equip themselves with the latest insights, trends, and tips to address least learned competencies in the HUMSS specialized subjects.
3. School heads are advised to choose carefully the participants, preferably those who are teaching in the HUMSS specialized subjects and those who have not undergone any training. Secondary Schools and Integrated Schools may send one participant. Integrated Schools that have no Senior High School may send one participant in preparation for their future HUMSS offering. Further, please ensure that the classes of the teacher-participants are not disrupted by arranging their schedule of class during the week, use of alternative delivery mode or other means.
