This enabled us to execute all necessary undertakings to assure the success of the said 19-day event.

In line with the celebration of this year's Capiztahan slated on April 13 to May 1, 2023, the Provincial Government of Capiz through the Provincial Tourism and Cultural Affairs Office will hold Maragtas sang Capisnon Cultural Show: Parade of Floats and Street Performances on April 15, 2023, 3:00 PM that will showcase the significant events in the historical timeline of the province from pre-colonial, colonial and post-colonial period to be depicted on a float and street theater.

In this regard, we would like to request to your good office to endorse this activity and encourage the schools under your division to invite their faculty members and students in witnessing the said parade and street performance as a learning event. We are cognizant that your participation will help us achieve our vision for this year's Capiztahan. We believe that this is a way for our young people to be immersed in our own history, culture, and heritage in the hope that we enable them to become the key players of the society.

May our joint efforts in this activity strengthen our linkages and deepen the Capisnon's appreciation towards our own cultural heritage. Thank you very much.
