THE MATATAG WAY

Celebrating a momentous accomplishment and testament to the determination one has fulfilled while being educated in the four corners of the classroom is of the utmost importance in celebrating the End-of-School-Year rites. This is the moment when graduates or movers reflect on their journey and the challenges they have overcome.

My dear learners, you have defeated the trials in these difficult and demanding times. You have struggled your way to reach the zenith and milestone in moving toward another phase of your life.

The struggles may be tough but the tough get going. You were all MATATAG in facing the unknown, you strived hard and burned midnight candles. Now, you are all here. The community is looking at you, the future of our country.

The Bansang Makabata is our way of emphasizing to you that DepEd is very much focused, like the eye of an eagle, on ensuring that you will become the cream of the crop. This ensures that we live up to our promise of providing you with quality, accessible, relevant, and liberating basic education throughout your stay in your second homes, our schools.

My dear movers and graduates, may our sacrifices live and grow in the most unfathomable depths of your hearts, transforming each of you into becoming a Batang Makabansa.

As you step into the world beyond these walls, may you carry the torch of grit, passion, dedication, and love for our country. Continue to face the future with unwavering determination. Continue to nurture your passion for it holds the key to success.

The Home of the Champions will continue to dedicate itself to the pursuit of excellence. We will never cease to produce true champions as we continue to cultivate the fertile grounds for them to survive and thrive.

Congratulations!
