WHEREAS, the NFSSLG is committed to creating safe schools that prioritize the well-being of every learner, with a particular focus on addressing Violence Against Women and their Children (VAWC);

WHEREAS, the "Violence against women and their children" as defined by Section 3 of the Republic Act No. 9626, also known as the "Anti-Violence Against Women and Their Children Act of 2004," refers to any act or a series of acts committed by any person against a woman who is his wife, former wife, or against a woman with whom the person has or had a sexual or dating relationship, or with whom he has a common child, or against her child whether legitimate or illegitimate, within or without the family abode, which result in or is likely to result in physical, sexual, psychological harm or suffering, or economic abuse including threats of such acts, battery, assault, coercion, harassment or arbitrary deprivation of liberty.

WHEREAS, alarming statistics from the Philippine National Police and the 2017 National Demographic and Health Survey conducted by the Philippine Statistics Authority reveal 7,424 cases of violations of the Anti-Violence Against Women and their Children in 2022, and one in four Filipino women aged 15-49 experiencing physical, emotional or sexual violence by their husband or partner;

WHEREAS, available data demonstrates that despite ongoing efforts to address gender gaps, violence against women and their children persists in the Philippines, with our learners in schools potentially being victims within their households;

WHEREAS, the Presidential Proclamation No. 1772, s. 2006 declares November 25 to December 12 of Every Year as the 18-Day Campaign to End Violence Against Women;

WHEREAS, the NFSSLG, aligning with the MATATAG agenda of inclusive education, empowers the Supreme Secondary Learner Government to implement Gender and Development (GAD) programs, projects, and activities (PPAs) in line with the Department's mandate of providing gender-responsive basic education;

WHEREAS, the NFSSLG, embodying the "Makatao" core value of the Department of Education, recognizes that fostering a humane, compassionate, and socially responsible learning environment is integral to the holistic development of learners;

WHEREAS, the empowerment of learners through awareness campaigns is fundamental to the promotion of a conducive and nurturing learning atmosphere;

WHEREAS, a well-informed learner body is better equipped to recognize, challenge, and actively prevent instances of violence against women and their children within the school community;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE NFSSLG, to empower the Supreme Secondary Learner Government (SSLG) to spearhead initiatives in Observance of the 18-Day campaign to end Violence Against Women and their Children (VAWC);
