1. The Department of Education will conduct the Computer-Based National Achievement Test for Grade 12 (NATG12) to be administered to the sampled schools for SY 2025–2026. (Attached is the list of sampled schools and alternate schools.)

2. The computer-based NAT will be conducted on March 9–18, 2026, and all sampled schools are expected to prepare for administration within this testing window. Enclosure No. 1 indicates the sampled schools and alternate schools in the Schools Division of Capiz. If a sampled school is ineligible to administer the test, this Office will designate a replacement from the list of alternate schools. The selected alternate school must have the same classification as that of the replaced school.

3. All school heads, ICT focal persons, and school testing coordinators of the sampled and alternate schools are requested to attend a meeting on Friday, March 6, 2026, 9:00 AM at the WAB Building of Capiz National High School, Fuentes Drive, Roxas City.

4. The meeting aims to:

- orient participants on the administration of the computer-based NAT G12;
- clarify the roles and responsibilities of school heads, ICT focal persons, and testing coordinators;
- discuss guidelines for preplacement and alternate schools;
