SUBJECT : Updated Guidelines and Schedule for the 2026 National and Localized Work Immersion Fairs

DATE : September 4, 2026

Relative to the upcoming 2026 National Work Immersion Fair, with the theme, Bridging Aspirations and Opportunity: Strengthening Industry-School Partnership, please be advised of the definitive schedule and operational guidelines for both the national launch and the localized rollouts.

The National Launch of the 2026 National Work Immersion Fair will proceed as scheduled on September 11, 2026, at SMX Olongapo City Convention Center, hosted by Tapinac Senior High School, in coordination with the Schools Division Office of Olongapo City, Department of Education-Region III, and the Bureau of Curriculum Development (BCD).

The Department extends its highest commendation to all regional offices and schools division offices for their proactive preparations and high state of readiness for the localized rollouts. To further capitalize on this readiness and maximize industry engagement, the conduct of all Localized Work Immersion Fairs across all other regions will be moved to September 18, 2026, in direct alignment with the nationwide observance of Department of Trade and Industry Week from September 14 to 20, 2026.

This strategic synchronization ensures that localized activities leverage nationwide trade and industry partnerships, bringing substantial opportunities to host schools and learners. All field offices are instructed to maintain their current technical preparations, partner pledges, and coordination structures in anticipation of the September 18 nationwide localized launch.

Central Office (CO) officials and Technical Working Group (TWG) members assigned to Region III shall proceed with their deployment for the September 11 National

4. Bureau of Learning Delivery (TechPro) Specialists

- Serve as the co-lead office of the BCD in overseeing the event.
- Provide assistance to the Host Schools related to the Work Immersion implementation.
- Coordinate with Regional and School Division Offices regarding participation and event requirements.
- Oversee the preparation of the program, activity flow, and technical sessions.

5. National Educators Academy of the Philippines

- Serve as co-lead and official representative in the conduct of the Work Immersion Fair.
- Support documentation of best practices and knowledge-sharing initiatives arising from the event.
